Project Overview

Interactive Coding are a leading European supplier of high speed barcode and labelling machinery for the packaging industry.

They have been working with aci for the past 8 years mainly on their office space, but with the creation of their new flagship warehouse space, they required something different from us.

aci were able to advise on the correct products to use and design a logical working environment for the new space.

The works involved a double skin steel partition wall with a fast action roller door, mesh caging, shelving and pallet racking.

Customer Comment

We have dealt with aci on numerous projects over the past 4 sites as our company has expanded.

They are a great company to work with and all of the staff are friendly and helpful.

All of the work is done to a very high standard and at good value for money.

Will continue to work with aci for any of our office refit or warehouse requirements in the future.
